

~Community Heritage Group Award~ The Credits 2018 Nominations

History Matters Association

History Matters Association is a not-for-profit group of military and historical reenactors dedicated to providing accurate representations of Canadian military history, with a primary focus on providing quality Education Day Programming based on the First World War. The program offers an immersive experience with battalion drills, trench raid tactics, a casualty clearing station, and life on the home front, amongst many other elements reminiscent of life, times and service during the First World War.

Mississauga Arts Council (MAC)

The Mississauga Arts Council (MAC) engages, connects, promotes, champions and helps develop opportunities for artists of all disciplines, ages and abilities from diverse communities. The Boxes & Banners Mississauga Street Art Project brought together arts, heritage and corporate partners to identify and visually communicate the heritage origins of our City's neighbourhoods.

Port Credit Village Project (PCVP)

Port Credit Village Project (PCVP) is a volunteer driven, non-profit organization aimed at enhancing the distinct character of Port Credit through projects and events focused on Heritage, Greening, Art, and Innovation. Founded in 2001, their common goal is to connect people with the rich cultural heritage of the area known as the “jewel by the lake”.

Whole Foods Market, Square One

Whole Foods Market is a mission-driven company that seeks out the finest natural and organic foods available, maintains the strictest quality standards in the industry, and has an unshakeable commitment to sustainable agriculture. Their purpose is to nourish people and the planet. Whole Foods Market is known for integrating their franchises into the local community, like this mural, which is an artistic nod to the history of Mississauga and acknowledgement of the City's origins of historic villages coming together.
