

~Cultural Heritage Individual Award~
The Credits 2018 Nominations

Dr. Feihong Nan

Dr. Feihong Nan, a successful research analyst and engineer, is the founder of the Canadian Division of Yuan Yin Group. Alongside her passion for classical Chinese music, she has over 20 years of professional experience playing and teaching the Chinese zither called Guzheng. She currently holds the highest grade certificate in Guzheng music performance and is the national 1st place winner. She is committed to sharing their beliefs and the passion they have for music with audiences and students.

Randy Persaud

Randy is a media personality, content creator, community advocate and a Mississauga cultural promoter. Over the years he has contributed his passion and personality to many groups and events in Mississauga. He is on the Board of Directors for the Mississauga Arts Council, Vice Chair of Marketing for Carassauga, and Vice President of Broadening Horizons. Randy is also an ambassador for Mississauga Gives, Bollywood Monster Mashup, Mississauga Fashion Week and advocate for Interim Place.

Zohra Zoheri

Zohra is the Artistic Director and Founder of Bridging the Gap Productions, a non-profit organization with a mission of "Enlightenment through Entertainment". She writes prose, poetry and plays – in English and Urdu. Zohra has received recognition awards from the Governments of Ontario and Canada for raising awareness of social issues through her award-winning socio-dramas staged to audiences in Mississauga.