

~Culture Heritage Individual Award~ The Credits 2017 Nominations

Asma Mahmood

Asma has worked for many years in the arts and culture community of Mississauga. As well as being the co-founder of the Canadian Community Arts Initiative (CCAI) and Mosaic Festival, she is an accomplished practicing artist, curator and arts administrator.

Randy Persaud

Randy has contributed his passion and personality to many groups and events in Mississauga for a number of years. He is an ambassador for the Mississauga Arts Council and Director of Marketing for Carassauga. Randy also works to promote the Canada Day Together Festival, Bollywood Monster Mashup and the Mississauga Music Walk of Fame.

Kulsoom Sayada

Kulsoom is the Managing Director for Mississauga Fashion Week, celebrating art and heritage through the cultural diversity of fashion. This fully inclusive event reflects the cultural diversity of the city and encourages a sense of pride and place in the community for all.